the Supreme Court

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY TO THE PRESIDENT

New Delhi, the 19th December 1951

No. 67-Pres./51.—The President has been pleased to award the President's Police and Fire Services Medal for gallantry to the undermentioned officer of the West Bengal Police:—

Name of the officer and rank.—Kailashpati Dubey (deceased), Inspector of Police, (officiating), 24-Parganas.

Statement of services for which the decoration has been awarded.—On 26th February 1949 when Dum Dum Aerodrome, Basirhat Sub Treasury and other places were attacked by an armed gang, Shri Dubey was ordered by the Superintendent of Police to accompany him in pursuit of the raiders. Armed with a Sten Gun, he set out with a party of 5 Constables. He was ordered to go ahead of the Superintendent of Police in a lorry (as the Superintendent of Police had to fall back awhile at Gouripore Outpost to obtain data about the number and equipment of the raiders and their way of retreat) and joined the party of Shri Girija Saran Singh at Baraset. He advanced with the combined parties in two lorries and engaged the raiders at Basirhat. As the latter had taken up positions of vantage, hiding themselves on house tops and behind shelters, the police had no alternative but to come out into the open to fight the raiders. Inspector Dubey led the small police force under his command fearlessly against these odds. As he was armed with a Sten gun, he soon became the target of concentrated attack and he fell mortally wounded. He continued however to use his Sten gun as he lay in the street, giving his men covering fire and exhorting them to fight on and apprehend the raiders. He eventually succumbed to his injuries, but his example of bravery and devotion to duty had steadied his men and encouraged them so that they continued to engage the raiders.

Inspector Dubey displayed exceptional courage and a high sense of duty.

2. This award is made for gallantry under rule 4(1) of the rules governing the award of the President's Police and Fire Services Medal and consequently carries with it the special allowance admissible to officers of and below the rank of Inspector of Police as provided in rule 5.

No. 68-Pres./51.—The President has been pleased to award the President's Police and Fire Services Medal for gallantry to the undermentioned officer of the West Bengal Police:—

Name of the officer and rank.—Roma Kanta Cachari, Jemadar, Eastern Frontier Rifles, (West Bengal) Battalion).

Statement of services for which the decoration has been awarded.—During December 1950, when a party of raiders had trespassed into the border of West Bengal and entrenched themselves on the Nadia border, Jemadar Roma Kanta Cachari was in command of a party of the Eastern Frontier Rifles sent to drive them back. The raiders were strategically much better positioned, occupying high ground on three sides and were well dug-in. Jemadar Roma Kanta Cachari's force of 5 sections attacked the raiders on the night of 22nd/23rd December, 1950. The Jemadar launched the attack with great courage and skill, and, in spite of the strategically better position of the raiders and their superior strength, advanced about 800 yards under extremely hazardous conditions and occupied his first objective after driving out the raiders. He then deployed his forces into 5 posts, personally supervising the posting of the men to the posts. Early next morning the raiders who had been dislodged from their positions counter-attacked with patrol after patrol in strength but all these attacks were repulsed. The raiders having failed to retake their positions opened heavy fire on all the sections with automatic weapons and rifles which continued throughout the day. The men under Jemadar Roma Kanta Cachari had run short of ammunition and most of the sand bags on the top of the trenches were blown to pieces under the terrific fire, and bullets were falling inside the trenches. In the course of this firing a Naik belonging to one of his parties was hit and died instantaneously. The Jemadar at great personal risk kept visiting all the section posts and by his fine example encouraged his men to stick to their posts in spite of the heavy odds against them. In the afternoon the raiders brought in strong reinforcements and showed great superiority in strength and firing power. The men under the Jemadar were hard pressed and tired after the day's strenuous fighting without any break. Anticipating attacks from the raiders from three directions, the Jemadar opened fire on them whenever they could be located, and so held on to the posts until he received orders from his Commandant to withdraw. This order had eventually to be issued by the Commandant as the position which the Jemadar was holding was gradually being encircled by the raiders. Withdrawal under such heavy fire from three directions was extremely difficult but in spite of this the Jemadar arranged it so that his party did not suffer any casualty in the process. When he himself finally withdrew, he crawled back some 800 yards with the dead body of a comrade tied to his back.

Jemadar Roma Kanta Cachari displayed great leadership, superb coolness and courage throughout this encounter.

2. This award is made for gallantry under rule 4(1) of the rules governing the award of the President's Police and Fire Services Medal and consequently carries with it the special allowance admissible to officers of and below the rank of Inspector of Police as provided in rule 5.

RESOLUTION

New Delhi, the 21st December 1951

No. F.3-39/51-Fy.—With a view to give a fillip to fisheries research and help develop the marine fishing industry in the country, the Central Government set up in 1946 a Pilot Deep-Sea Fishing Station at Bombay, with the following objectives:—

- (i) to carry out exploratory work in respect of:
  - (a) the charting of fishing grounds;
  - (b) the determination of the best fishing seasons;
  - (c) the examination of the types of fish available;
  - (d) the preservation and storage of fish at the Cold Storage Plant and Ice Factory at Sasson Docks;
  - (e) the assessment of the suitability of different types of fishing vessels; and
  - (f) the assessment of the suitability of different types of fishing gear and equipment, especially nets.
- (ii) to train personnel for fishing operations on modern lines; and
- (iii) to test the commercial possibilities of deep sea fishing and make available the requisite data and information to those concerned, so as to help and guide the expansion of the fishing industry.

2. In pursuance of the recommendation made by Shri Pheroze Kharegat in his report on the working of this Station, the Government of India have decided to set up an Advisory Board to ensure proper working of the Station and to secure greater co-ordination between the Central Fisheries Department, the Bombay Port Trust, the Naval Authorities, the trade and the Fisheries Department of Bombay State. The Advisory Board will consist of the following:—
